Florida is changing the way that Medicaid health care services are provided. Soon, most Medicaid recipients will receive their health care services through the Managed Medical Assistance (MMA) program. The MMA program is part of Statewide Medicaid Managed Care.

Our records show that your current plan <Current plan name> will serve in the MMA program under the name of <Current plan new SMMC DBA>!

Step 1: Look 	You may find additional information about the plans available in your area by going to: www.flmedicaidmanagedcare.com OR Calling the toll-free helpline at 1-877-711-3662, to talk to a choice counselor.
Step 2: Choose 	You do not have to enroll in an MMA plan and may use straight Medicaid, also known as fee-for-service, instead. If you wish to enroll you will need the following for each person below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • birth date and • either the Medicaid number or Social Security Number. <table border="1" data-bbox="659 1329 1040 1402"> <thead> <tr> <th>Name</th> <th>Medicaid #</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td><Name></td> <td><Medicaid ID></td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	Name	Medicaid #	<Name>	<Medicaid ID>
Name	Medicaid #
<Name>	<Medicaid ID>
Step 3: Enroll 	Online at: www.flmedicaidmanagedcare.com OR Call the toll-free helpline at 1-877-711-3662, to talk to a choice counselor or request to meet with a choice counselor.

If you do not want to enroll in a plan, you do not need to do anything. Until your current plan ends, you will continue to receive services as you do now. After <dynamic date=last date before region go live>, you will receive your health care services through straight Medicaid, also known as fee-for-service.
